Dear Hiring Team,

I'm reaching out to express my strong interest in joining your organization. With 19+ years of experience across finance, operations, and compliance leadership roles in India, West Asia, and APAC, I'm confident in my ability to contribute meaningfully to your company's continued growth.

I bring a track record of managing ₹200Cr+ portfolios, leading finance transformations, driving strategic cost savings, and aligning financial goals with broader business objectives. My experience spans global firms, cross-border teams, and board-level decision-making, and I thrive in environments where financial leadership plays a central role in shaping company success.

I'm truly enthusiastic about the opportunity to collaborate with like-minded leaders and bring value through sharp execution, high accountability, and strong business partnering. I would welcome the chance to explore how my background aligns with your organization's goals.

Warm regards,
Sheela Varne
